

NEW JERSEY CLUB FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

Dear NJCMA Members:

Congratulations for taking this important step toward furthering your education within Club Management.

Please find the BMI certification application you requested. It must be completed in its entirety for the Foundation Board to consider your scholarship request. It may be submitted up to one year in advance, but at least 30 days prior to your scheduled BMI class. Once the application is completed, the Foundation Board will review your application at its quarterly meeting, to determine if you have met the qualifications for the scholarship.

In addition to being active, the Foundation Board takes into consideration; years and activity in the chapter (refer to the list of criteria attached). Scholarships are awarded at the rate of full tuition and only upon successful completion of the course; travel and housing expenses are not included.

Scholarships include BMI Club Management, BMI Leadership Principles, BMI General Manager/COO, BMI Tactical Leadership, BMI Strategic Leadership, BMI Golf Management, BMI Food & Beverage, BMI International, BMI Sports & Recreation and the CCM Review Course.

In order to be reimbursed, you will be required to submit proof of successful completion of the BMI and a receipt showing the amount paid for tuition. If approved, the Foundation will reimburse your Club for the tuition expense.

- The policy of the New Jersey Club Foundation is to provide a maximum of $50,000 annually
- Scholarships will also be available for all CMAA Scholarship Recipients, receiving complimentary BMI registration. These scholarships will provide reimbursement for travel-related expenses up to $1,000.

If you have any questions or to submit a scholarship request, please do not hesitate to contact:

New Jersey Club Foundation

Purpose

The purpose of the New Jersey Club Foundation (“NJCF”) is to support educational programs for club managers and assistant managers to further the club management profession; to provide financial assistance to individuals interested in the club and hospitality fields creating a greater awareness of professional opportunities; to promote the club management profession through local and national academic programs.

Code of Responsibility for Recipients of Scholarships

Adherence to the CMAA Code of Ethics

We believe the management of clubs is an honorable calling. It shall be incumbent upon club managers to be knowledgeable in the application of sound principles in the management of clubs, with ample opportunity to keep abreast of current practices and procedures. We are convinced that the Club Managers Association of America best represents these interests and, as members thereof, subscribe to the following Code of Ethics.

We will uphold the best traditions of club management through adherence to sound business principles. By our behavior and demeanor, we shall set an example for our employees and will assist our club officers in securing the utmost in efficient and successful club operations.

We will consistently promote the recognition and esteem of club management as a profession and conduct our personal and business affairs in a manner to reflect capability and integrity. We will always honor our contractual employment obligations.

We shall promote community and civic affairs by maintaining good relations with the public sector to the extent possible within the limits of our clubs’ demands. We will strive to advance our knowledge and abilities as club managers and willingly share with other Association members the lessons of our experience and knowledge gained by supporting and participating in our local chapter and the National Association’s educational meetings and seminars.

We will not permit ourselves to be subsidized or compromised by any interest doing business with our clubs. We will refrain from initiating, directly or through an agent, any communications with a director, member or employee of another club regarding its affairs without the prior knowledge of the manager thereof, if it has a manager.

We will advise the National Headquarters, whenever possible, regarding managerial openings at clubs that come to our attention. We will do all within our power to assist our fellow club managers in pursuit of their professional goals. We shall not be deterred from compliance with the law, as it applies to our clubs. We shall provide our club officers and trustees with specifics of federal, state and local laws, statutes and regulations to avoid punitive action and costly litigation.

We deem it our duty to report to local or national officers any willful violations of the CMAA Code of Ethics.
