

NJ Wine Society
Presents

Bordeaux Seminar & Luncheon

featuring

Guillaume Clarke, Export Manager
of Compagnie Medocaine Des Grands Crus

Guillaume Clarke belongs to a Bordelaise family involved in the wine business since his family, originally from Ireland, arrived in Bordeaux at the end of the 17th century. After discovering Bordeaux wine making methods in different chateaux and experiencing fine wine distribution in China with Metro group, he graduated with a Master of Corporate Finance from IESEG School of Management in Lille. In April 2010, under the umbrella of Compagnie Medocaine des Grands Crus, he was hired to implement their wine distribution in the North East of the US. Since January 2014, Guillaume Clarke has taken responsibility for sales in North and South America. He lives in New York.
