NJCMA EDUCATION MEETING

The 5 C's

Presented by Jen Croneberger

Founder, Jlyne Consulting Group & The HUMAN Leadership Institute

This is Jen's flagship keynote and the one that has brought her such awards and celebration as one of the top keynote speakers you will have the pleasure of listening to. She uses life-stories and humor to bring you along for the ride, and to discover all that you have awaiting your best self.

Being an effective relationship-builder hinges on our ability to be inspired by passion and driven by the mission of our life's work. Being able to show up as your best self in a very change-centric time always and most effectively begins within and by taking ownership of five specific principles.

These Five words will not only open your eyes to a new way of seeing the world around you, but the humanity within you. Character, Communication, Choice, Courage and Confidence, are ideas that lay the foundation to becoming the best version of ourselves possible. It's time to push boundaries.
